

November Preschool Press 2021

November Checklist

A progress report for each child will be sent home November 22 and 23. The report is designed to make parents aware of how your child is adjusting to school and should not be construed as a "grade" card. If you have any questions after reviewing the checklist, please feel free to call the preschool or email your child's teachers. Remember, we are always open to any and all questions you might have about our program or more importantly your child.

Dress for the Cold

Mitten and hat weather has arrived. Please remember to dress your child for the weather. Remember to write your child's name on all outerwear, including hats and gloves.

Bring the Farm to You - Baby Chicks

Our eggs have arrived and are in the incubator. We have seven eggs, all hoping to hatch on or around November 10th. The children will be checking on the eggs daily and once they hatch they will be able to lightly touch them. This is a wonderful opportunity for the children to learn about the chick lifecycle and how to care for all living things.

If you would like updates on the chicks as they begin to hatch, please check out our Facebook page.

"Piglet noticed that even though he had a Very Small Heart, it could hold a rather large amount of Gratitude."

- A.A. Milne

Read to you Bear Program

We are off and running with our reading program. We have had quite a few kiddos coming into the office to get their stickers and prizes. We hope you have all begun your reading journey. If you forget to write down a title, simply initial the line. Remember you can read the same book over and over again. Just keep initialing the lines. Below you will find a list of a few of our favorite books.
